Note: The following information is updated periodically but should not be relied upon as being current. Your comments and corrections are welcomed to improve usefulness.

By Road

Note, unless there are special circumstances, there is no car parking at the Anglesea Building. You are advised to stay at a hotel, with car parking, within walking distance of Anglesea building.

If you have a mobility problem and would like to have a disabled parking space, please contact me and I will check availability.

From Southampton & the West

At M27 junction 12, exit onto M275 toward Portsmouth(W) (2.6 miles). Continue on A3/Mile End Rd (0.4 miles). At the roundabout, take the 2nd exit onto A3/Marketway (1.0 mile). Sharp right at A288/St Michael's Rd. Continue to follow St Michael's Rd (0.1 mile). Continue on A3/Anglesea Rd (0.1 mile).

From London, and the East

From A3(M) join A27 (towards Portsmouth). A27 becomes M27 around Cosham. Continue on M27 (signs for M275/Portsmouth/Fareham/M27/Southampton). At M27 junction 12, exit onto M275 toward Portsmouth(W) (2.6 miles). Continue on A3/Mile End Rd (0.4 miles). At the roundabout, take the 2nd exit onto A3/Marketway (1.0 mile). Sharp right at A288/St Michael's Rd. Continue to follow St Michael's Rd (0.1 mile). Continue on A3/Anglesea Rd (0.1 mile).

The ESA School

The ESA school is in room A 2.13 in the Anglesea Building.

Room A-2.13 is to be found on the 2nd floor of the south stairwell (the stairwell nearest to the railway line).

You may go directly to A 2.13, but if you need further directions, Main Reception will help you.

By Taxi

Beware!.....if you take an airport-based taxi from Heathrow to Portsmouth, you may be charged about £280. It is much more economical to agree a price and pre-book with a Portsmouth company such as those listed below.

By Rail

www.nationalrail.co.uk - 0845 600 0650 for up-to-date information, especially when travelling at weekends when track maintenance often affects schedules.

The local rail station is Portsmouth & Southsea (less than 1 mile from Anglesea building).

Portsmouth Harbour rail station is also nearby.

From Heathrow you can buy a combined ticket which takes you from Heathrow to Woking by RailAir bus, connecting with a train to Portsmouth & Southsea.

From Gatwick there is a direct service via Havant every hour. This service is often affected by maintenance at weekends. Call the above phone number to check.
